Planning Director Selected

Charles B. Woodman
To Assume Duties
Here December 20

Charles B. Woodman, 31, graduate of Cornell University and a 52-month veteran as a Lt. Commander with the Navy in the Pacific during World War II is the new planning director for the city of Palm Springs.

Hired this week, Woodman will assume his duties December 20. His wife is accompanying him to the Village from their home in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

THE NEW planning director who has just completed a two year post-graduate course in city planning at Cornell, has had actual experience in the field and comes highly recommended for the job here, according to City Manager William Alworth.

Cities he has worked for in a planning capacity are Brunswick, Maine and Auburn, New York.

ALWORTH also announced the employment of a planning draftsman, Donald D. Noble. His duties will consist of zoning administration.

Offices for the planning director and the draftsman are in the process of being prepared at the old headquarters building at the airport, where the city engineer's offices are now functioning.

This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

The man's a sap who drives his auto
While in the throes of getting bloated.

It seems that the motorcycle cavalcade which came into town Sunday was much maligned in advance notices. There were no out-of-line performances, traffic on the drive was not snarled as expected, everything went off smoothly and those in charge are to be congratulated.

Trouble was most people rated the visitors on past performances when another group of motorcycle riders from a different section of the state put on rodeos at Stockton, Lodi and other central California points.

There they went Wild West, rode their snorting bikes into bars and in general had the police running in circles. But this was a different breed of motorbikers, according to reports.

Although the event was on a former rodeo grounds and the Western spirit prevails here, the visitors treated their steeds as motor bikes instead of horses—and all was well.

SPEAKING of traffic and so on, (who was?) disaster hit The Sun office last week. One of the lads parked his car on Palm Canyon drive and then got busy.

An hour and a half later he went to move his car. There was a ticket. Disgusted, he drove around the block over on to Indian avenue where there are no parking limit signs.

Two hours later he returned and found another ticket on his windshield. He was in a yellow loading zone. There's one thing to say about summer time. Police aren't so strict then on over-time parking. The city hall called my attention one hot August day to the fact that my old beaen-up car had been in a green 15-minute zone there for 72 hours.

WHAT THIS TOWN needs is a few alleys. So that when you write "a half a loaf is better than none" and it comes out "better than nine" you have a way to go to and from the office without seeing nasty people who remark about such things. Also, an alley would come in handy these colder days. At the time I pitter-patter to work it is cold these mornings. And I'm

Santa Claus Will Arrive By Air Friday

Plans for the annual visit of Santa Claus to Palm Springs school children were practically completed today with the star in Friday's cast of characters due to arrive by airplane at 9 a.m.

A visit to the schools and the ride up Palm Canyon drive will follow. There'll be trees at Cahuilla and Frances S. Stevens schools where gifts of bags of candy and apples will be made. Pre-school youngsters will go to the school nearest them.

SANTA CLAUS will come zooming in by airplane and dip his wings in salute to the Cahuilla school and the Frances S. Stevens school from a safe distance. Then he will pay a visit to the Cahuilla school and at 11

Not Bashful

C. of C. Wants All to Know Their Numbers

They're not bashful at the chamber of commerce.

They don't want an unlisted number. They don't care who knows what their number is. In fact, they get 7000 calls there a month.

But you couldn't dial the chamber after consulting the new phone directory. It isn't there.

According to that book—there ain't none.

To get the C. of C., however, you dial 6-1-1 or 6-1-8-1 and you'll get service even if it was put in the phantom class by the new directory.

Hospital Christmas

Soroptimists Provide Tree and Decorations
For Shut-Ins Over the Holiday Period

There'll be a Merry Christmas at Community Hospital for those unfortunate enough to have to be confined there over the holiday. That was the word today of Mrs. Armand Turonnet, chairman of the public relations committee of the hospital association who yesterday said that plans for the event were about completed.

Palm Springs Soroptimists have donated a big tree and all of the decorations and the tree will stand in the hall at the hospital for all to see.

The hospital board will meet Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Frank Bennett, president presiding, in the conference room at the hospital. At that time finishing touches will be put on holiday plans and other important business come before the board.

It will be the final session of the year and reports of activities will be heard as well as discussion of plans for the coming year which is expected to bring many important matters affecting the Community Hospital to a head.

The hardest man to find in the Village or at Palm Desert, his subdivision, is Cliff Henderson. Try it some time.

For All Palm Springs

Tree To Sparkle on Mountainside

It'll be shining from the side of the mountain overlooking the Village in all of its resplendent glory by tomorrow night—the 35 to 40 foot tree brought down from the Santa Rosa mountains Friday night.

According to Jim Nitch, chairman in charge of the Christmas Decorations committee of the newly organized Junior Chamber of Commerce, members of that organization started working on the erection of the tree yesterday afternoon.

HE ALSO ANNOUNCED that all of the lights and decorations for the tree were purchased by him in Los Angeles Friday and flown down here free of charge by Western Airlines Saturday evening.

Nate Milnor now at the Waldorf Astoria hotel in New York City, owner of the land on which the tree is to be set wired: 'O.K. put tree there and God bless you all.'

AS FOR OTHER decorations at street corners of the Village, Jim Nitch said that part of the work was dependent upon the amount of money collected from donors in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben McGhee, safety executive for Douglas Aircraft Corporation were scheduled to arrive in the Village for a weekend of sunshine and rest at the Colonial House.

Relapse

Car Clouting Epidemic
Breaks Out Afresh

An epidemic of "car clouting" broke out anew over the weekend with at least six victims reporting to the police that their automobiles had been pilfered by thieves.

The last seige of car clouting occurred more than three weeks ago with a total of approximately twenty or more cases reported over a period of a month.

Only arrests which have been made up to date this season was the apprehension of two teen-aged boys who confessed pilfering the automobile of Police Officer Dale Thompson. He also effected the "pinch."

Named as a by-laws committee were Frank Camp, Ray Wilson and John Hormel.

Sweepstakes Prize for Best Yule Display

A grand sweepstakes award will be made by the Palm Springs Garden club for the finest outdoor Christmas decoration in the annual contest this year, this to be in addition to prizes to be given in five districts of the Village.

This new plan of judging the Community Christmas decoration program which is to be launched with a simultaneous switching on of the lights at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 22, was reached at a meeting of the club Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Harper on San Jacinto way.

AT THE MEETING Mrs. George Mannington was elected as president of the club. The organization was formed last year by the late Frank Cutler who served as its first president until his death last summer in Portland. Other officers serving with Mrs. Mannington are Mrs. Frank Camp, vice-president; Gladys McClure, treasurer, and Horace Pendery, treasurer.

Great interest is being shown in the outdoor decoration program, according to a report to the club by Mrs. Mannington and Mr. Pendery, co-chairman of the committee. The committee is seeking to encourage all homes of the Village to decorate a growing tree, doorway, driveway, hedge, wall or other part of the front yard. The contest, in which prizes will be shrubs, is incidental to the community-wide decoration program which the club is endeavoring to revive.

MEMBERS OF THE CLUB agreed that their homes will not be considered in the contest, but the members will serve as judges in the five districts into which the Village is divided for the competition. It is believed the judges will see all of the decorations but if persons feel that the judges might miss their entry because of a wall or location of the street they are asked to telephone the address to Mrs. George Mannington or Horace Pendery.

The club, which meets in the homes of the various members on Saturday afternoon, will hold one regular meeting each month with a program and one additional informal gathering such as a garden tour, flower trip or other similar event each month, it was decided. A program committee consisting of Mrs. Frank Purcell, Mrs. Ernest Alschuler and Harry Harper was appointed for the initial meeting in January.

Named as a by-laws committee were Frank Camp, Ray Wilson and John Hormel.

Organization Completed
At Meeting Last Night;
Members Meet Monday

Don Artz, local restaurateur, is the first president of the newly organized Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He was elected at a meeting at the Pogo Pogo, of which he is owner and operator, last night when the board of directors of the organization met.

Harry Reid was elected first vice president and Jim Nitch, second vice president in charge of outside programs. Ed Thompson was named treasurer and Don Holdeman, secretary. Rollie Vaile was elected chairman for public relations.

IT WAS DECIDED to hold a full membership meeting at the Fiesta room of the Desert Inn on the evening of Dec. 22. All members were requested to bring their dues which have been set at $12 annually.

Following the membership meeting, the group will adjourn to the Pogo Pogo for refreshments which will be "on the board of directors." At next Monday night's meeting chairmen for the various committees to function for the Junior Chamber will be named.

AT LAST NIGHT'S meeting the purpose and aims of a Junior Chamber were outlined and plans for an active participation in the life and progress of the Village discussed.

The first public service activity of the new organization is now under way and will be visible to all of the Village this week—the big Christmas tree which will adorn the mountainside back of the Village.

Desert Sun Contest
Winners To Be Guests

There'll be a party tonight at six o'clock at the Pogo Pogo.

Youngsters who competed in the recent Desert Sun subscription contest will be guests of the newspaper and prizes will be awarded the winners.

The awards totalling $170 will go to Barry DeVorzan, first; Betty Wright, Mary Pendery and Jackie Kingsbury.

The first two are members of the Village Vandals which won the contest and the latter, members of the Tahquitz Twisters.

Don DuBose captained the Vandals and Anne Wells the Twisters. K. K. Youngs supervised the contest conducted by the two teams of high school students.

Results of the campaign were far beyond the expectations of the Sun management.

Peaceful

Motorcycle Visitation
Almost Unnoticed

There were some complaints but not many on the part of residents in the Las Palmas and Miraleste districts regarding the noise of more than 150 backfiring motorcycles whose riders held a contest near the old Rodeo grounds Sunday.

Expected to shatter the peace and quiet of the Village Sabbath before the members of the American Motorcycle association arrived, police reported that the group was orderly and made as little noise as possible.

Strategy employed by the police department in keeping the two-wheeled riders off of Palm Canyon drive. Police met the contingent at the northern limits of the city and then escorted them directly to the contest grounds.

Rudolph Fontes, accused of "car clouting," was bound over to superior court trial by Judge E. E. Theriault Friday. Bail was fixed at $1000.

Food Goes to Navajo Indians From Villagers

First contributions by Villagers of food, clothing and medical supplies for the Navajo Indians of New Mexico and Arizona were piled aboard part of a truck caravan which originated in Los Angeles and passed through Palm Springs Saturday night.

The campaign here started by AMVET Post 34, under the chairmanship of Jay Rollman only got under way last Friday and will continue until January 10.

ANNOUNCEMENT that another convoy having its origination in Los Angeles and surrounding communities will again pass through the Village January 3.

The truck convoy which stopped in the Village Saturday was manned by volunteer union truck drivers. Accompanying the huge truck and trailers loaded to overflowing was a station wagon carrying Tom Humphrey, member of the Hopi Indian nation and founder of the American Indian Citizen League of California. Also in the vehicle and who will supervise the distribution of the relief for the

Village Police Get FBI Tips On Gun Usage

Pity the gunman that tangles with any member of the Palm Springs Police department from now on, he'll be a "gone goose" if he starts.

All of this because the annual nine day FBI school concluded here last week with two days of pistol practice employing the latest technique in laying a bad gunman low, but quick.

Members of the police force most of all learned the FBI way of drawing their weapon fast and shooting first. This part of the range firing was not only done with the right but with the left hand as well.

The police "students" also learned the right way to take advantage of cover, firing from a prone, sitting and crouched position.

Harold Higgins and Joe Rice of the Federal Bureau of Investigation conducted the school.

California's Supreme Court upheld the Riverside Superior court's verdict of the death sentence for James Tuttle convicted of the 1947 New Year slaying of nurse Charlotte Beverly in Cathedral City.

The PUBLISHER'S Corner by OLIVER B. JAYNES

SIX FEET TALL and still in short pants... in fact he's outgrown almost all of his clothes, this lad we call Palm Springs. He's a fine looking, wide awake, fast growing boy who is making his own way without much help from his Daddy in Riverside. As a matter of fact, he's already helping to support the whole Riverside family.

But the lad is still wearing some worn-out, ill-fitting clothes. His telephone facilities—which we mentioned last week—are threadbare. Some new things have been ordered for him but have been a long time on the way. Perhaps they are being shipped through the Panama Canal or something. We wonder how much longer he can hold out.

He has completely outgrown his parking shoes and is going around barefooted. Someone suggested getting him some parking meters but that fell through—and then the cops started giving him tickets for going around in his bare feet. What he really needs is a pair of big, new, roomy parking lots. It would sure make the young fellow a lot more comfortable.

His speed laws are up to his elbows and his arms are still growing. He should either have a whole new shirt or have some extensions sewed on the sleeves. His Grandpappy up at Sacramento should be told how much the boy has grown. We suggest a new shirt for Christmas.

This Palm Springs kid has the most faded out street signs you ever saw on a boy his age. You would never know whether they had been red, white or blue—as a matter of fact many people don't believe he ever had any at all. Well, he did. They're so worn and faded out that he was ashamed to be seen in them any more and cast them out in the city dump.

Even the kid's house is an antiquated affair. He got ambitious about a year ago and wanted to move into one of the big hotels but the folks thought the upkeep would be a bit too high so he had to be satisfied with the old Desert Sun office—which was quite a come-down. An appeal has been made to his Uncle Sammy in Washington but the answer is also being sent through the Panama Canal.

Now, the Chamber of Commerce thinks it's a shame to let the kid go around like this—especially since he's such a fine boy. They're pleased with the way he is growing but ashamed of his ill-fitting clothes. Others, too, are making plans for the boy's outfit. Let's hope he gets some new duds soon!

He'd Rather be Rip Van Winkle Than Another Caruso Any Day

August M. Nardoni can stand any amount of volatile personalities and exudes no little amount of unbounded energy himself but his nerves, of all things, have reached the ragged edge.

All of this, he said, was brought about in his purchase of the Alexander Emil Sarthou home, 856 Paseo El Mirador. The purchase of a home in Palm Springs is not uncommon, but in this case the former occupant had gained for himself a lot of newspaper publicity when his penchant for singing "Open the Door Richard" at 2 a.m. resulted in his arrest for disturbing the peace.

Sarthou's day-long jury trial which resulted in his conviction, his appeal from the verdict and finally his plea of guilty, started a lot of fan mail pro and con to his 856 Paseo El Mirador home which still comes trickling in, as well as personal telephone calls. It's the latter that hurt.

Being awakened at 2 and 3 a.m. by the jingle of the telephone with the caller insisting that he join in singing "Open the Door Richard," is costing Nardoni a lot of sleep.

He wants the world and particularly those early morning songsters to know that he can't carry a tune even if its in a basket.

"All I know how to do well and expertly," Nardoni said, "is to show a customer how to properly sign an insurance application. I want my sleep."

Long Hunt for Check Suspect Ends in Arrest

Sought in Palm Springs since October 27, 1947 on a warrant charging issuance of checks without sufficient funds in the bank, Bobby Blue, professional musician was in the city klink yesterday awaiting arraignment in Judge Eugene E. Theriau's court.

Arrested in El Centro for violating a traffic law, authorities in that city remembered that Blue was wanted in Palm Springs and accordingly notified the local constabulary.

Police Officer Durman Orday made the trip to El Centro and returned the fugitive.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM will be two sound films: "The Hopi Indians" and "How Nature Protects Animals." This Thursday another special program is scheduled for Cathedral City, to be presented in the Town Hall. Three films will be shown: "With Williamson Beneath the Sea," "Living Flowers," and "The Frog." Since these pictures will not be shown again all interested persons are invited to attend; the time is 8 o'clock.

Friday's film classics series includes three silent movies which depict the development of the Western film. They are: "The Great Train Robbery," (1903) "The Last Card," (1915) and "The Covered Wagon," (1923).

Appreciation is expressed to Wm. Norman Jupe for his generous gift this week to the museum, a Bell & Howell Duo-Master slide projector, which has been very much needed, and which will ensure greater enjoyment in future illustrated lectures.

Five Palm Springs Men Join Shrine At L. A. Ceremony

Five Village Masons walked the "burning sands" to Shrine-temple in Los Angeles last Saturday at the last ceremonial presided over by Potentate Elmer Bromley. His term of office expires soon.

Among those who became Shriners were: Wilbur P. Davis, manager of the Colonial House; Arthur Greenfield, realtor; Harold Murphy, co-owner of the Palm Springs Music company, his partner, Jimmie Hume and Henry Cross.

Making the trip by special Tanner Motor livery to be present at the ceremonial were: G. K. Sanborn, Lloyd Simon, Bryson Amos, Harold West, Merrill Crockett, Dr. James Potter, George Strebe, William Leoncio and John Archibald.

The group left the Village Saturday at 1 p.m. and returned early Sunday morning.

All of the Village Masons stayed for dinner served at the Shrine Auditorium after the ceremonials were completed.

Deep Snow Puts Resort in Shape For Winter Play

With 17 inches of snow as an enticement to skiers, Idyllwild's first ski lift began to run Sunday at Hidden Lodge resort, according to Manager Tommie Tyndell.

Skiing was good this weekend at the winter resort, above Palm Springs, which boasts, besides the new lift, the only toboggan slide and the only CSA certified ski school in the county.

Two days after her arrival in town she was picked up and booked at the city klink for disturbing the peace at one of the swankier night spots.

On her return after her trial before Judge Eugene E. Theriault where she was fined $25 she went and "dood" it again, police charge.

The long ride again loomed for Sergeant Orest Johnson but the matron who usually accompanies women prisoners was out of town. Instead Police Clerk Ione Coble had to "assist" in the long cold round trip to the county jail.

Dinner-Dance At Desert Mill Great Success

The dinner-dance sponsored by the Palm Springs Game and Conservation association held Saturday night at the Desert Mill was a huge success.

More than 250 members and friends enjoyed the spaghetti prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Tony Biavachi and the dancing that ensued later.

This time the task was one of saving money that is either in or out of their treasury—nobody knows except the members of the Riding club. But last Sunday the members did save $162.

THE CASE INVOLVED the moving of the former Torney General Hospital guard house, purchased by the organization for a club house.

By the way, the bars on the building are not going to be removed to enable some of the members who were former GI's to feel thoroughly at home.

Anyway the $162 could be saved if the plumbing, electrical conduit and water pipes were removed and the cement foundation cracked loose. The members, 52 of them, turned out to do the job in order to save the cash.

The lure of course, was breakfast, and what breakfasts these Los Compadres pack away!

AFTER THEY ALL broke their fast, the women members turned to washing the dishes and the men turned to with hammer, tongs, monkey wrenches and crowbars. According to Phil Delano, president of the organization, in two and one-half hours the job was done.

The building will be moved to the club's leased site at Araby and Morongo roads in the near future.

HOUSED IN TRAILERS

During the recent war, the United States government purchased 35,000 trailer coaches which, through repeated occupancy, were used to house more than 500,000 persons.

TEAMWORK

★ With the passing of each year, a great number of facts are added to man's increasing store of knowledge. Not over seventy-five years ago a man of superior intelligence could possess a working knowledge of all of science. Now, however, the realm of the known is so vast that it is necessary for men to specialize in order to master one small but deep corner of scientific knowledge.

Thus we have the physician, who diagnoses disease and prescribes medication and treatment. The pharmacist compounds and dispenses. Both the physician and the pharmacist benefit greatly from the researches of the biologist, the chemist, the physiologist, and the physicist, to name but a few. Through the teamwork of the allied sciences, increasingly better medical service for all is assured.

Grand Jurors Adopt New Plan Filing Reports

Special reports by the Riverside county 1947 grand jury covering its auditor's investigations into operations of several county departments are on file with the board of supervisors.

These reports, which in the main deal with procedures and systems used by the various departments in conducting and recording county business, will be studied by the supervisors, who may then take action to carry out recommendations of the grand jury.

IN RESPONSE to a question by County Counsel Earl Redwine, George M. Wills, who, as a member of the panel, submitted the reports, said that the progress reports were being submitted by the grand jury at this time so that it can determine what action, if any, the board will take on its recommendations.

Normally progress reports are not made by the grand jury. Its final report, if filed with the presiding judge of the superior court, then with the county clerk through the supervisors, after the close of the calendar year, presenting reports closely following conclusion of a study is unusual, supervisors said.

REPORTS ISSUED cover activities in the following county departments auditor, clerk, agricultural commissioner, fair, garage, justices of the peace, probation office, road, and sheriff.

At the supervisors' session, it was decided to give copies of the reports to each of the department heads concerned. This action, made on the motion of Supervisor Ed Hill, was taken to

New Paint Store Will Be Opened Here on Friday

The new Palm Springs paint store will open Friday with Harry Englander and Maurie A. Sheklow as co-owners at 386 South Indian avenue, it was announced yesterday.

Sheklow has been in the paint contracting business for the past ten years in the Los Angeles area. He has severed all connection with the contracting business to devote his time to the selling end and with his long experience as a practical painter feels confident he can solve all painting problems for his customers. He was with the 8th air force for four years during the war.

Englander comes to Palm Springs from Hollywood where for 13 years he was assistant studio superintendent for Samuel Goldwyn studios and for the past 14 months studio superintendent at Universal.

The new firm will carry what they believe are the best lines in all paints and supplies.

Scenic Drive

Harry C. Harper was present last night at a meeting of the Coachella Valley Planning commission at which time the main discussion centered around plans for a scenic drive from Palm Springs to the Salton Sea. The route would follow Whitewater wash.

very un-Village like with an overcoat and hat . . . But I feel silly going home in the afternoon wearing a coat and hat . . . That's all right for tourists but not for a representative of the leading booster for Palm Springs' climate . . . If you're curious, I mean The Sun . . . I could go home via alleys if we had them and thus save the good name of P. S. . . Besides alleys would be nice for loading and unloading and thus relieve the jam on the drive . . . Why do people double park by Pedestrian signs so you can't get by them?

WHEN they didn't appoint Mrs. Bill Lippman on the U. S. diplomatic staff, they missed a tremendous opportunity. . . She really knows how to get things done . . . For instance, she called this morning to say she had something for the paper she really wanted everyone to read so would I put it in the column? . . . What do YOU think, after that approach? . . . So here it is: The Village Red Cross chapter is in dire need of trained home service or trained social service workers . . . Trained workers are asked to call Mrs. Lippman at 3684. . . I hope a trained home or social worker reads this . . . To justify Mrs. Lippman's faith in these essays.

PEOPLE ALWAYS find something to worry about . . . Now that Harry Oliver has started an annual "Peg Leg Smith lost mine hunt" he's developed another fear . . . He plans to make it an annual event every January 1 when all of the old-timers will assemble at Borrego and go out and look for the mine . . . "Just my luck," he said "that somebody will find that mine next year and break up that plan for an annual search." . . . Oliver, you know, sometime ago had a bunch of peg-legs turned out, had them weathered by a film studio artist and planted them around the desert . . . For months afterward reports came in of new clues to the fabulous lost Peg-Leg mine . . . "They didn't find Smith there, how do they think he got away without that leg?" asked Oliver . . . "Or did they think?"

I'LL BET Christmas comes on Dec. 25 this year . . . Will give 8 to 5, in fact. (Note to linotypist — Please, oh, please, don't make that date anything but 25.)

GROWING BLUE GRASS

Blue grass can seldom be successfully grown in dense shade. If sections of the lawn are in shade of buildings most of the day or under thick-growing trees, and if these areas have been given an application of plant food, and still blue grass makes no headway, then use a shade grass such as Poa Trivialis, or whatever your seedsmen recommends for shade in your locality.

GI Insurance
Reinstatement
Steps Listed

Approximately 60 per cent of the veterans of Riverside county area have dropped their national service life insurance, according to Philip M. Marsh, manager in charge of the Veterans administration office in San Bernardino. Marsh listed important information for these veterans in another warning that the deadline for reinstatement is nearing.

(1) Ex-service men and women who have dropped their government insurance may reinstate on or before December 31, 1947, by paying two premiums only, at rate formerly paid in the service, without physical examination.

(2) Insurance may now be paid to beneficiaries in lump sum or large monthly payments.

(3) Under new insurance laws there is no restriction as to beneficiaries, as was the case prior to August, 1946.

(4) There are now six types of permanent policies available under the national service life insurance program as follows: ordinary life, 30-payment life, 20-payment life, 20-year endowment, endowment at age 60 and endowment at age 65.

(5) Complete information may be obtained by contacting the Veterans administration office, room 215, postoffice, Riverside, on Tuesdays and Thursdays each week.

"I cannot too strongly emphasize the value of national service life insurance, its many liberal features, and the opportunity during the month of December to reinstate insurance in good standing, regardless of how long it is lapsed, by payment of two premiums only," he said.

P Spgs First . . .

Springs has 12 of them. In fact, the Smiths run third in the Village for there are 10 Williams listed here out of 13 in the book. After reading this, the Williams clan will work tooth and nail no doubt to either get another like name here or have one of them move away. That 13 may bother them.

AS FOR THE JONES tribe—they're in fifth place with six listed, five of them in Palm Springs.

Even the Wood family tops them—there are seven by that name including Grant Wood of The Sun.

Not to mention the Wrights of which there are nine.

THE TRADES are not evenly distributed here. There are several Bakers and Tailors but no Butchers. The swank note is attested by the fact that there are several Butlers here but despite all of the organizations here there are no Joiners.

As for education, we can Read and Wright with two of the former and nine of the latter.

The name Palm Springs naturally, tops the list with 61 entries while Desert comes next with 50.

AND FOR THE FINAL take on this composition, the directory is a push-over for me to read. The style of abbreviations is the same as the notes I take.

I know at once that P Spgs means Palm Springs, DS Spgs Desert Hot Springs, Pms means Palms, a clnr is a cleaner, a hswf is a woman devoting her time to wiping the dust off the venetian blinds but I fail to note anyone listed as a brdr which would be one who serves you ht brdr on a cold night.

I'll be sg y n P Spgs.

A delicious and easy to cook cabbage is to "pan" it this way: Finely shred the cabbage, melt 2 tablespoons fat in large skillet. (Meat drippings, bacon or sausage fat may be used.) Add cabbage and cook slowly until tender, stirring now and then. If cabbage gets too dry during cooking, add a little milk. Season and serve.

Savings Accounts
Interest Rate Goes
To Higher Levels

A further increase in the rate of interest on Bank of America savings accounts has been authorized by the board of directors, according to announcement by L. M. Giannini, president of the bank.

For the semi-annual period commencing January 1, 1948, interest will be paid on savings account balances up to $10,000 at the rate of 1 1/2 per cent per annum, compared with the rate of 1 1/4 per cent established a year ago when Bank of America reversed the downward trend of savings interest with an increase of 25 per cent. The new rate represents an increase of 50 per cent over the rate applying in 1946.

INTEREST on that portion of a savings account which exceeds $10,000, heretofore paid at the rate of one per cent per annum, will be increased to 1 1/4 per cent. To receive the interest, such excess funds must be continuously on deposit for the full semi-annual period.

The extent to which the benefits of this additional increase will be reflected throughout

County Zoning
Law Presented
To Supervisors

Three new county ordinances regulating sub-divisions in unincorporated territories, setting up zoning definitions and provisions for land use and buildings will be submitted to county supervisors soon for study and adoption.

The county planning commission of which Culver Nichols of Palm Springs is a member, outlined the new measures in a meeting last week and submitted them to the board.

The measures regulating subdivisions will probably be considered this week and the zoning and land use measures will get action early in the new year.

The latter measure has the endorsement of local communities and is designed for protection outside of the city limits of Palm Springs.

Leftover canned fruit steps up the flavor of a plain vanilla cornstarch pudding. Use the fruit sirup instead of some of the milk and stir it in as the pudding begins to thicken, then add the fruit. Canned cherries, with their sirup, gives the pudding a delicate pink color and a delicious flavor.

Bill of Human Rights, Even Though
Not World Law, Expected to Wield
Great Influence on Mankind

By DONALD BELL
(Copyright, 1947, Overseas News Agency, Inc.)

NEW YORK (ONA)—The American delegation to the UN Commission on Human Rights, led by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, has drafted a ten-article declaration on the rights of all individuals in any state, and these new Ten Commandments have been submitted to the present meeting of the Commission at Geneva, Switzerland.

Most Americans who read the short document will probably not understand why its basic ideas are not adopted without discussion by all 57 member states of the UN. Nevertheless, a bitter ideological fight for this declaration has already begun, and it is highly doubtful whether the commission will succeed in elaborating a compromise formula to be presented to the next General Assembly which will convene next year somewhere in Europe. It was a contemporary of Thomas Jefferson, the famous linguist Sir William Jones, who asked in one of his poems: "What constitutes a state?" and answered:

"Men who their duties know, but know their rights, and knowing, dare maintain." This definition of the state as a society of free men was in harmony with the thoughts then expressed by the French philosophers Jean-Jacques Rousseau, Voltaire and Denis Diderot, and it expressed the spirit of the American Revolution. But it took a long and sometimes bloody struggle until the rights of the individual, balanced by a code of duties, could become the basic law of Western European and North American states, most of the rest of the world has never accepted our definition of the state as the servant of the individual. The American draft of an international Bill of Human Rights is the first attempt to spread our concept of the state around the globe.

WE ARE NOW so accustomed to looking at all international controversies from the viewpoint of the Russo-American power conflict that we easily disregard the objections which other nations may have to our ideas. But the "freedom of information, speech and expression . . . the freedom of assembly and association," as demanded in article 2 of our proposal, have never existed and do not now exist in huge parts of Asia. They are almost unknown in most colonial areas of the world. It was easy for the Russian delegate at the Geneva meeting, Ambassador A. E. Bogomolov, indirectly to defend the numerous restrictions on political freedom in his own country by demanding petitions for the consideration of petitions from colonial areas, charging that none of the territories governed by the British, French, Dutch or Belgians have the right to express opinions or discuss political issues.

The Soviet delegates attack our draft proposal for two other reasons. They stress the danger of renaissance Fascism, and they want to restrict personal freedom whenever it conflicts with economic security. Both points are well made from a propagandistic viewpoint. For the European nations which have witnessed the growth of Fascism inside the framework of rather free and democratic societies want to prevent a repetition of that sad experience. And those nations which are now suffering from cold and hunger are sometimes willing to sacrifice many personal freedoms for the sake of an organized economy.

Shall there be freedom of speech, of assembly and of association for those who advocate the overthrow of the Government? The Russians, and some other European nations, believe that the Fascists have forfeited such rights. Many people in the Western Hemisphere think that Communists likewise should not enjoy all civil liberties. And this is not the only difficulty. For it may well be asked: who is a Fascist or a Communist? Does it involve only the legal question of whether a person has joined a party or a political organization? The Russians are disposed to call most conservatives and even some liberals Fascists. We know that Left-Wingers of all shades have often been labelled Communists.

THERE CAN BE no doubt that Mrs. Roosevelt and her collaborators have done an excellent job in drafting an international Bill of Rights. But the problem is whether the states which may adopt the ten articles shall be allowed to interpret them in their own way and to make such exceptions as they regard necessary. Take, for instance, article 3, which says that "no one shall be subjected to unreasonable interference with his privacy, family, home, correspondence, or reputation. No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his property." But what is "unreasonable interference?" Each state will, of course, justify its interference as reasonable. We, for instance, have mail censorship in our zone of Germany, and so have the British, the French and the Russians in their zones. We argue rightfully that we must prevent conspiracies against our occupation forces. But the regimes in other countries consider themselves threatened by many dangers, and they feel they can suppress civil liberties and open letters, search homes and arrest suspicious people as a matter of self-protection.

All this explains why we have not suggested making the proposed Bill of Rights a world law. It would be impossible to introduce all these civil liberties which are a matter-of-course for ourselves, at once and with binding force all over the world. But the declaration, if adopted, would nevertheless serve an important purpose even if it only remains a declaration of principals and a directive for the future behavior of many governments. It would have the same effect on the whole world as did the writings of the French philosophers on Western Europe and the United States in the second half of the 18th century. Even without immediately becoming the law of the nation, their books deeply influenced the thinking of statesmen, judges, and the common people.

The agriculture of the state of Oklahoma is varied, combining the production of both the north and south. Corn, cotton and wheat are the largest among the many products of the farms of the state.

New Telephone Directory Shuffles Up
The Towns but Puts Us Top and Bottom
By PHAT

Palm Springs does it again.
It's first, last and dominates the middle too.
The new telephone directory is out and was greeted with mixed emotions.

Some liked it and some be-moaned the loss of Palm Springs' individuality. The Village is all mixed up with 29 Pms, DH Spgs, Beau, Bng now instead of having a section all by itself.

GETTING BACK to that part about being first, last and in the middle—the first name in the directory has a P. Spgs. number, the AAA Auto club, replacing Abdun-Nur in the No. 1 spot. The last name in the directory is also a P. Spgs. number—Zuberbier, Roxy. That is the same as in the last directory.

Somewhere near the center, like pickle in the middle, is the owner of the two index fingers tapping out this prose—Graettinger. But that's not why P Spgs dominates the middle. It's because there are so many more P Spgs numbers.

THERE'S ONE thing to say about the new book and that is a big item, too. The makeup is such that it's easier to read. No more of this:
"Hey, ma, where's my glasses?"

This danged type the telephone company uses is astigmatism's ally."

The desert area gives the Smith family the edge by one over the Johnsons with the Jones trailing. The Williams are in third place.

IN ALL CATEGORIES except the Smiths, P Spgs leads. As to the Smiths, 29 Pms (that's where the Ldy is from) leads.

The 29 Pms Chamber of Commerce should do something about that. They've even got the Smith Bros. listed there and the home town of the Lady is supposed to be where there is no such thing as a cold or a tickle in the middle, pardon me, throat.

OUTSIDE of 29 Palms, however, the Village has eight Smiths. The Johnsons get the place position in the directory, nosed out by the Smiths by one. They lead in the Village, however. There are 16 Johnsons listed and Palm

Month's Permits Highest

1947 May Surpass
All-Time Record
Established in 1946

The current calendar year stands a good chance of beating the record year 1946 in building operations, P. M. Swart, chief building inspector, said yesterday.

At any rate, 1947 will see much more construction here than during 1946, he said.

DURING THE RECORD year of 1946, building permits totaling $6,630,330 were issued by the city building department. This was the all-time high for Palm Springs and when the first three months of the current year started out slowly, the building department wouldn't have taken the short end of a 100 to 1 bet that 1947 would exceed 1946.

Then for eight straight months, up to Nov. 30, monthly building totals exceeded the half million mark.

ON DECEMBER 1, this year, total for the calendar year was $5,218,940. As of last week end, December building was approaching the million dollar mark. With more than a half month to go Swart said that it was possible that the total for the month would hit the million and a half mark needed to exceed last year's all-time record year.

"At any rate, 1947 will far exceed 1946 in actual construction," he said. "Work was stopped on some buildings for which permits were issued last year and not resumed until this year. In another instance, work was started on a building only a month ago the permit for which was issued during that record-breaking March, 1946.

OF LAST YEAR'S record-breaking total, more than half was issued in March when permits totalling $3,704,200 were taken out. That made the Village the third city in the Southland and the 11th on the coast in building.

Even if the city does not surpass last year's record mark, indications were that Palm Springs will have the largest building total in the county. On December 1, the county seat was $200,000 ahead but building has slackened there while taking a great spurt here.

Fined $300 in Building Code Violation Case

A. Harris, resident on the reservation, was fined $300 in Judge E. E. Theriau's court Friday on conviction of violating the city's building code.

Harris obtained a permit to erect a dwelling then went ahead with construction, it was charged, without benefit of inspection and some parts of the structure did not conform to the city's building code.

Judge Theriau suspended $250 of the fine provided Harris change the building to make it conform with the city laws.

Believe School to Gain Title Soon To Torney Lands

Arthur Phelan, member of the Washington legal firm of Hogan and Hartson, in the Village the last few days, is of the belief that the Desert School district will have no trouble in obtaining title to 18 acres of land, now part of surplus declared Torney General hospital.

Hogan and Hartson have been acting as the Washington correspondents for the legal firm of Haight, Trippett and Syverson of Palm Springs and Los Angeles. The latter firm was retained last year by the city of Palm Springs and the Palm Springs Community Hospital in working out the legal details in applications for all or part of Torney General with the War Assets Administration.

Phelan in an interview with a Desert Sun reporter said that opinion prevailing in Washington circles is that Senate Concurrent Resolution 31, would result in greater discounts to municipal governments asking for surplus lands to be used for parks and recreational purposes. This same resolution has frozen the disposition of Torney General hospital properties until March 15, 1948. A committee is expected to convene sometime in January to examine those lands still in possession by War Assets Administration and wanted by municipal and state governments.

Contract Award in 60 Days

Four-Lane Road
To Replace 111
North of Village

Contract for the realignment and construction of 4.1 miles of highway from Whitewater Point to the north city limits of Palm Springs will be awarded within the next 60 days, E. Q. Sullivan, district state highway engineer for the local area said at his San Bernardino office this week.

Bids were opened last week at his office for the work and included the three low bids of Peter Kiewit and Sons company, Arcadia, $339,458; Morrison-Knudson company, Los Angeles, $399,496 and Griffith company, Los Angeles, $404,395.

Bids were also submitted by George Herz and company, San Bernardino, Match Brothers of Colton, and E. I. Yeager of Riverside.

The new road will follow a higher level obviating flood dangers between the Village and the Point. By utilizing portions of the present highway (No. 111) a four-lane road will be available out of the city, ending the usual bumper-to-bumper holiday traffic and assuring Villagers of highway facilities at all times. In the past, the city has been isolated on several occasions by flash floods.

The nation today needs men who think in terms of service to their country and not in terms of their country's debt to them.—Gen. Omar N. Bradley, veterans' administrator.

SANTA ANITA PARK

The Odds are 3 to 1 . . .

In this democracy of ours the majority rules.
Californians by the overwhelming majority of 3 to 1 endorse Thoroughbred racing in the State.

This was established by an independent public opinion poll conducted by Knight and Parker for the Western Fairs Association. The survey represented a cross-section of California opinion.

Those who believe that racing is beneficial to the State advance the following reasons: It furnishes desirable recreation; it affords revenue for the State; it attracts tourists; it creates employment; it brings out-of-State money to California; it affords a new market for merchants.

These are all good reasons.

Yet the reasons advanced completely neglect the all-important contributions racing makes to agriculture.

The public is ill-informed regarding one of the principal functions of racing at Santa Anita and other California tracks. Some 99 per cent of California residents favor the fairs conducted in the State. Yet only 3.7 per cent of those interviewed realize that these fairs are supported by the revenues of Thoroughbred racing. The 76 fairs of the State are one of the most powerful stimulating influences for California agriculture, which now ranks first in the nation.

The great majority of Californians realize that such a turf club as Santa Anita cannot support its lavish stakes schedule and its racing plant worth $10,000,000 solely through its share of the pari-mutuel wagering, and that it must look to such items as gate receipts, concessions and parking fees for its margin of profit.

Racing, like the fairs it supports, enjoys the confidence of the public. Public confidence in the sport will be increased when Californians are fully and honestly informed regarding the conduct of racing at Santa Anita and the other tracks of the State.

Sad Trip Fails

Villager's Mother Dies
Before He Arrives

Al Wertheimer who returned to the Village Monday told friends that his efforts to reach the bedside of his mother before death took her failed.

He made the trip to his mother's home in Detroit by air but only arrived in time to attend the funeral.

Oxygen concentrations of five per cent in citrus storage spaces produce the longest life with minimum physiological or fungal disorders, University of California research has shown.

Annual Salvation Army Campaign Under Way in Village; Funds for Maintenance of Work Sought Here

Raymond Cree, chairman of the Salvation Army sponsoring committee, announced the opening of the annual maintenance appeal for funds with which to support the statewide and local activities of the Salvation Army today when local citizens will be asked to subscribe the army's budget, recently approved by Cree's committee.

Orville Tracy of Los Angeles is assisting Chairman Cree with details of the maintenance appeal which is made on behalf of more than two million Americans who benefit from Salvation Army social welfare services annually.

INCLUDED on the sponsoring committee are F. G. Inghram, treasurer, Mrs. Nellie Coffman, Thomas M. Holland, R. M. Gorman, R. F. Graettinger and Hart L. Kopp.

"Our committee is proud to make this appeal on behalf of an organization as outstanding as the Salvation Army," Cree said Friday. "The Salvation Army, lauded by the American boys who served in the armed forces of two wars, has never given much attention to publicizing its work but we want the people of this community to know that the Salvation Army deserves the support of every citizen."

CREE STATED that the army's appeal would be made by mail, and urges every contributor to be especially generous because of the high cost of welfare work due to lower income brackets and higher living costs.

"The Salvation Army does not waste money," Cree declared. "The Salvation Army has 'sense' about dollars. When you give money to the Salvation Army, you get your money's worth of social work for your money."

Cree explained that during the war years the Salvation Army was a member agency in the local war chest which has now been discontinued and that consequently, the local Salvation Army sponsoring committee was obliged to raise funds by independent campaign.

"NOBODY ever went broke supporting the work of the Salvation Army," Cree observed. "They ask for mighty little in comparison with the scope and quality of their work. One solid piece of social work from this area each year, such as the rehabilitation of some unmarried girl at the army's maternity hospital, is worth twice the amount of our total gifts from his area."

Local contributors are asked to make checks payable to the Salvation Army fund and mail them to F. G. Inghram, treasurer, Bank of America, Palm Springs branch.

Desert Hot Springs Happenings

Harry Plymire, well known former Palm Springs resident, is coming back to the desert after a short absence. A large property owner in Palm Springs, he has purchased three lots in Desert Hot Springs and plans the immediate erection of a motion picture theater on the corner property.

Benedict and associates, Palm Springs architects, are preparing the plans.

THINGS GOT HOT at the Chamber of Commerce building when defective wiring in a sign set fire to the roof. Kate Maze, secretary, informed by a passerby that the roof was on fire, summoned aid.

Jim Cummings mounted a ladder with a garden hose and had the blaze subdued when the fire department arrived. In coming down the ladder, a rung broke and Chambers was slightly hurt.

CO-OPERATION was revealed Sunday when citizens in tract 3 turned out en masse and filled in the chuck holes on the street, smoothing it down.

Trucks were furnished by various contractors and residents got out and tamped the material down.

There'll be smoother driving now as a result of the community spirit shown.

Wanted—Leader

New Negro Scout Troop
Organized in Village

Wanted: A Villager with enough interest and love of boys to take over the leadership and organization of a Negro Boy Scout troop.

This was the call sounded by John Connell, commander of the Owen Coffman Post of the American Legion, who added that ten boys have already signed up and are raring to go.

"But they have no leader," declared Connell. "We think such a troop is needed in the Village and would be a great help in building the morale of these boys."

Previous scout experience is not necessary but would be helpful. Connell asks that any man interested should telephone him at 3763 or 2206.

Name Commission To Operate New County Airports

Three members of the airport commission which will actually operate the chain of major airfields acquired by Riverside county from war assets administration were named by the board of supervisors.

The commissioners are B. C.
Barnes, Eugene Best and John L.
Mangel, all of Riverside.

Authority for the commission and the ordinance which will govern its activities in county airport management was passed by the county board November 24.

ALL OF THE THREE new commissioners have been active in public life of the community, and all are familiar with aviation matters. Barnes has been chairman of the county's aviation advisory committee, formed soon after the county made application for surplus army airfields.
Best is a prominent attorney, and Mangel an engineer with the California Electric Power company. Both were members of the present advisory committee.

The commission will hire a director of airports and supervise his work. Other employees of the airport department will also be responsible to the commission.

The ordinance charges the commission with the following duties: to encourage aviation development, operate the airports on as near a self-sustaining basis as possible, to the administrative work incidental to execution by the supervisors of leases, or other contracts, to maintain buildings, runways and grounds, deal with government agencies, obtain airport operators and oversee the activities on the airports.

AN ANNUAL SALARY of $50
plus necessary travel expenses will be paid each commissioner.

An advisory committee of ten members to assist the commission will be named by the board as required by the ordinance.

Two airports, Thermal and Shaver's Summit, have passed to county control, and the county has been notified that it has been awarded fields at Blythe and Hemet.

The appointments were made from a list of six men submitted by Donald Stevning for the advisory committee. Stevning said the six men were considered the among those able to serve. The best qualified in the county work will require considerable time, he added, particularly during the initial months when the airports are first placed in operation.

Boy Scout Officials To Be Seated Tomorrow

Officers for the Palm Springs Boy Scout council will be installed tomorrow night at the Chamber of Commerce building at a program starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Harold Lienau, who was re-elected to succeed himself at the fall meeting of the Scout Council, will be installed chairman.

Health Is Free on Desert, Take Full Advantage of Sun, Light, Air, Advice

The best things in life are free—at least, the best things in life on the desert. That's what Emmy Jackson, international figure skating champion and physical culture expert, said after a two-week visit here.

"What the body needs for perfect health is sun, light and air and that Palm Springs has in abundance. Why don't more people take advantage of it?"

TAKE ADVANTAGE of the desert, was her advice to winter
visitors—and to Villagers, too.
Get out into the sun whenever you can. Walk and then walk some more, up hill and down.
Get out and ride, the opportunity is here.

"And if you only had a skating rink," she added. "That's great exercise. Imagine skating under the desert sun and in this climate!"

Miss Jackson holds numerous skating awards here and abroad and has taught many members of European royalty how to get along on the ice.

BUT HEALTH and poise are her main hobbies and she thinks the desert offers the real opportunity.

"I've seen people sitting out in the sun with gloves on, hats, bodies all covered up. That's not good. Those people are missing something. Get out in the sun and take off as much clothing as possible. Let the sun and air get to the skin.

"This is a wonderful place. It has everything for poise and health. I'm coming back."
She left last week-end for her

Henry Paromelli, sought by Palm Springs police since December 8 on a charge of issuing a check without sufficient funds, was surrendered to police authorities Saturday by August M. Nardoni, bail bondsman, who promptly placed a bond of $500 with the court here guaranteeing the defendant's appearance for arraignment before Judge Eugene E. Theriault, Jan. 2 at 10 a.m.

Paromelli is asserted to have given a check to his former landlord in payment of a public utility bill in October 1946. The check was returned unpaid, according to police records.

What Is the "West"?

In the minds of most people, the west is personified by the large expanse of land with almost unlimited horizons. Our vision is limited only by the surrounding mountains but the dryness of the air makes it possible to see a greater distance than is the case in many other sections of the country. We are the "West." After leaving Palm Springs and heading into the setting sun, the traveler moves from one city to another and suddenly finds himself on the shores of the Pacific Ocean.

The West is where the visitor and native feels free to move his elbow without knocking down his neighbor and, there is plenty of room to do just that on the desert around our Village.

The only way to really see the desert and feel that you have become close to it, is to get on a horse and ride across one of the many trails in this section and see the valley, mountains and canyons. The world-famous climate of Palm Springs is ideal for riding. The mornings are cool and invigorating to horse and rider, at noon the sun makes it warm enough for the thin blooded folks to feel free to venture out of the heated room and absorb the natural vitamin D of old Sol. During the week of full moon there is no reason to stay home and play bridge. The silver of the desert night is something no visitor should miss seeing and being a part of. The added fun of a steak fry on such a night really adds to the fullness of the evening.

Every Saturday morning the Palm Springs visitor has an opportunity of attending a breakfast ride and eating a meal prepared by cow-boys, from a chuck wagon, on the desert. Bacon, eggs, cow-boy coffee and entertainment are the order of the day. Not to mention the fact that the affair is transcribed, on the spot, for a delayed broadcast at 7:30 p. m. every Saturday night over KCMJ.

Wednesday noon is the time for a luncheon ride to one of the canyons. Again it is a chuckwagon meal and entertainment in the true Western style.

Call any member of the Palm Springs Stable Association for detailed information and make your reservation early.

Club House, dining room, heated swimming pool, Grill Room for younger set and cabanas for non-residents, recreations and summer care provide every advantage of a private estate without the responsibilities and expense. If there was a better location Doyle would have found it. It has everything.

Restrictions enable small artistic homes. Contracting and planning service available on the ranch at astonishingly low costs.

"Restricted", modestly priced, appealing to the conservative who would avoid crowds and ostentation. An atmosphere of gracious living with peace, privacy and comforts.

Directions: Ramon Road out of Palm Springs, across Highway 99 to the end—10 miles, 15 minutes commuting distance.

Ask for Mr. Doyle, ranch owner, or courtesy to your broker.

Conservation Topic Of Forest Ranger At H. S. Assembly

By DANIEL LARSON

Donald R. Bauer, the head District Forest Ranger of Idyllwild, gave a talk at Palm Springs High School, December 4, on the "Value and Conservation of the San Jacinto Mountain Forest."

Mr. Bauer was introduced as guest speaker by Dr. Ernest Oertel, principal, whose efforts made it possible to secure the speaker.

Mr. Bauer gave briefly the history of the first discovery of San Jacinto Mountain by Juan Baptista Anza in 1775.

Mr. Bauer also cautioned the student body about the dangers of a forest fire and how it affects the Palm Springs water supply. Bauer told of the present shortage of water, necessitating the need of the Forest Service to drop dry ice into the clouds above Palm Springs in order to produce rain. But this was unnecessary since we had just received a two-day downfall of rain plus the presence of snow on the mountains.

Mr. Bauer hoped that the visitors would take special care while in Idyllwild so that future generations could enjoy the natural beauty of the wilderness.

In a normal year close to 69,000,000 pounds of wild rabbit are harvested in the United States.

Art Class

Christmas Box Built For School Display

Andrew Lester's art class is creating for the show-case a Christmas box 36 inches wide and 48 inches long. It is entitled "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men." It will be three shepherds, three angels, a star and some icicles hanging down. All these figures will be made of plastic.

This is supposed to be finished the 18th of December. It will stand in the show-case all through Christmas vacation. It is being done in Room 15, art room.

Class Notes

Mrs. Moya Henderson's Physical Education classes are taking eye and ear tests for the health record so the defects can be corrected.

All Freshmen and Sophomores took the Iowa silent reading test to determine their reading grade placement.

The Home Management class is working on notebooks containing house plans, household hints.

The art department is a beehive. One recent achievement is a three-dimensional spread on Sadie Hawkins Day, to be photographed for the Chia.

(Ed. Note: If there are more classes doing special work please let the editor or journalism instructor know.)

Point System Aids Band Organization At High School

By MORIE AITKEN

Last year Gustave Patzner came to our high school to teach music. Last year and this year especially there have been a lot of changes made in the band.

The most important change was made at the beginning of this year. It is a point system to ascertain the most important members of the band. Chuck Stone is the student who has the responsibility of keeping the point system data and pasting it on a chart in the auditorium.

POINTS ARE WON in a great number of ways as follows:

1. Public prepared concert, 15 points each concert.
2. Prepared solo, 10 points each rendition.
3. Prepared ensemble, 5 points each rendition.
4. Parade (Basses and Drums double), 10 points each parade.
5. Uniform inspection, 5 points per inspection.
6. Instrument inspection, 5 points per inspection.
7. Joining first choir, 3 points each time.
8. Holding first choir, 3 points each time.
9. Perfect attendance during school hours, 25 points per semester.
10. Special called rehearsal, 5 points per rehearsal.
11. Home practice, 2 points per hour.
12. Approved radio program, 2 points per concert.
13. Extra work, 3 points per hour.

THIS IS THE SYSTEM employed to find the most valuable student. The three uppermost students so far this year are John Harp with 149, Arthur Laidlow with 141, and Manuel Velasquez with 140. These boys are the kind that really work hard and regularly.

The school orchestra to be used for the operetta "Rio Rico", is now being formed. The orchestration is going to be very difficult and only the advanced students will be able to play for it.

Officers this year have been Dick Henson as student conductor, Betty Timmerman as secretary and Morie Aitken as manager.

Films Big Help In Class Work At High School

The movies shown here at the high school this year in different classes have been proved, by student reaction, to be a successful method in promoting added interest in regular classroom activities. This is only natural because in many respects a movie

Gazoozit

By LOLO

I have no idea who it was that discovered there are seven days in a week but I know no one has offered a good strong argument against this theory. So far as I am concerned, another week has passed.

Down we go into the hallways of recorded time and thumb slowly through the yellowed pages of the old steady list. There on the last page (page 367½) we find some new names scrawled on the dotted lines. New steadies, we read, are Mary Frost and Bobby Sandefer, Sandy Veano and Chuck Blackhart, Hazel and Duane. Let's give three hearty cheers for them.

Everyone was in a gay mood all week long and couldn't wait until the week-end to rejoice over being alive. Thursday night Jimmy Dills (Tubby) had a fine big birthday party in Desert Hot Springs and happy to be there were Pat Warren, Pudge, Janice Gates, Leona Lovett, Lorraine Lovett, Penny Raley, Charlene Hoss, Danny Larson, Lois, and Sonja Hulme and a big bombastic bunch of the junior high gang.

FRIDAY NIGHT there were three parties, one at Mary Frost's and one at Betty Wright's but the news on them has been kept well away from my ears. The third party was at the pit and there were Ella Ruth and Piere, Charlotte and Buddy, Betty Sandoval and Barton, Joyce Skuse and Bill Slocum.

Just a little added note, Lopez seemed to be enjoying himself with Shirley Myzask on several different occasions. My, my, Arlene, what can it mean?

Saturday night was a big night. It marks, no doubt, the end of the splendid romance between Candi and Sam, spelling tragedy. (If Shakespeare could only have had them to write about.) But while it brought an end to this love affair, it sealed promises of the future for o and Red and Bonnie and Les, for it was on Saturday night that both Jo and Bonnie received their lovely engagement rings. Just take a look if you don't take my word.

Also on this memorable evening the Jug's hayride scheduled turned into a great big house party out at Brownie's. Brownie was with Archer, Candi with Archer's friend Johnny, Marlene with Fern, Sandy with Chuck, Mable with Eddy, Virginia with Mac and Jerry without Morris. Velma, Bob Flavin, Jim, Joey Flavin, Mary Louise Klug, Betty Wright, Dixie, Ruth, Kenny Jackson, Stuart, Noel Brush, and many others were there too. No is more effective than books and is a pleasant form of study.

Some of the films used so far have been "Pattern for Smartness" and "Good Grooming" in Miss Cockriel's class. "Know Your Library" was viewed in Mrs. Martin's, Dr. Simpson's and Mrs. Henderson's classes, and "Land of Mexico," in Mr. Hammond's and Mr. Thompson's classes, also "Mission Life" in Mr. Lester's classes.

There are a large number of other films ordered for use in the future such as "Woodwind Chori" for Mr. Patzner's classes and "Old Mexico" for Mr. Lester's classes, and "Championship Typing" for Mr. Remy's classes.

Yule Program To Be Presented Next Thursday

By BROWNIE BROWN

Alexander Hammond, chorus and dramatics teacher, is conducting the Christmas program for Thursday, December 18. The first performance will be during activity period and then it will be repeated the same evening at 8:00 o'clock in the auditorium for the public, free of charge.

The chorus will sing Christmas carols from many nations with Mrs. Hammond at the piano. The Chinese carol will be performed by a small select group from the choir.

The dramatics class is going to give a one-act Christmas play entitled, "Dust of the Road."

Mr. Hammond says: "I feel that this Christmas program will surpass any I have put on in this high school. It contains wonderful music, good soloists and the mixed chorus of sixty voices does the lovely Christmas carols beautifully."

one was a wallflower when the dancing was going on but the greatest attraction seemed to be in the kitchen where the food was. Everyone was having a marvelous time, even Brownie and Ruth who had both dragged themselves out of sickbeds to show their friends they were still alive.

SUNDAY MOST EVERYONE went off to the hills to frolic in the snow. Did you hear those sleigh bells ringing? Well, I didn't either but it was a lot of fun for everyone who didn't get buried nose deep in the snow. There were Klug, Marlene, Dixie, Brownie, Arlene, Lopez, Johnny, Jo and Red, Dawn and Jackson, Marilou, Raphael, Doro, Stuart, Clayton, Morris, Virginia and McKinney, Candi and even some of the faculty and Mrs. Kiley when went skiing.

We're all swelling with pride for our alumni boys who go to Chaffey College, because now Chaffey has won the little Rose Bowl confirmation and all the gang has been celebrating since the good news was released. If you're not going to the Rose Bowl game, you're just not in.

Well, enough is enough and so I shall refrain from taking up more of your time. Before I go back into hibernation for seven more days, I'll remind you of that old Polish proverb which led many men to the road of joy. "He who dwells not in a sad past finds joy in the future that will last."
